

FABIUS-POMPEY GUIDANCE OFFICE

College Preparatory Resources

- The guidance office maintains an extensive library of material in regard to college preparation, college searches, scholarship resources, NCAA materials, colleges for students with learning disabilities, preparing skills resumes, writing a winning college essay, military academies and much more.
- SUNY applications are located in the guidance office, as well as applications for many of the private schools.
- Each fall during October and November over 40 colleges visit the guidance office to meet with students. These dates are posted in the daily announcements as well as in the guidance office window.

Did You Know... that for most colleges, the high school transcript is the most important part of the admissions process, followed by SAT/ACT scores, student essays, teacher recommendations?

Did You Know... that in order to receive the best possible consideration for college admissions, students should apply by mid-November for SUNY colleges, and mid-December for all others (unless applying under an Early Decision or Early Action)?
